DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6 and 9-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Good (5877133).

Good teaches a cleaning composition which comprises a lower alkyl ester of a fatty acid, and which preferably comprises a glycol ether as a coupling agent (see abstract and column 4, lines 43-47). Good also teaches the use of polyalkylene glycol ethers within the scope of the invention as nonionic surfactants (column 3, lines 51-59), and antioxidants (column 5, lines 33-35). Terpene alcohols may also be included as in claim 9. The use of the term up to is also inclusive of 0% in claims 9 and 10. Good differs from the present invention in that a specific example of a composition which comprises the ester in the range of 40 to 99% is not disclosed. However, Good teaches that the compositions comprising the ester to combination of coupling agent and surfactant may be at a ratio as high as 2:1, wherein water is only optionally added (column 5, lines 16-26 and claim 9). It would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to utilize cleaning compositions of Good comprising up to 66.66% ester, given the teaching of Good that the ester to combination of coupling agent and surfactant may be as high as 2:1. It would further be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to utilize levels of the glycol ether coupling agent in the range of greater than 1% up to 25%, given that the combination of surfactant and coupling agent is taught to total around 33.33%. Applicant's intended use in wells or on well equipment does not distinguish over the prior art.

3. Claims 7 and 8 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Applicant's petition has been dismissed. Since the application does not have all the required elements to claim priority, then the rejection over Good is maintained.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
